

MTAS Continuing Education - Mentoring Form

Under the MTAS Continuing Education Policy and Guidelines, mentoring or supervision is defined as an activity in which a massage therapist or student observes and works with another health professional to obtain a better understanding of other modalities or to learn new techniques.

A mentoring agreement must be in place between the mentor and mentee, outlining details of subject matter to be covered each day, along with expectations and learning outcomes.

Submit these forms as completed to ensure timely recording of con-ed credits. Use additional paper if necessary.

1 credit per 2 hours of mentoring (business or primary depends upon material covered). Maximum 15 credits per window.
[Note that an equal number of credits are awarded to both the mentor (if an MTAS member) and the mentee (student)].
